

BECOMING A SISTER

WHAT ON EARTH AM I HERE FOR?

Do you sometimes sense in your life a call to something "more"? Each day presents us with invitations to grow in relationship with God, others and in our consciousness of the world of which we are a part. Entering into each new day is exciting, promising and sometimes risky - but it is always God's gift.

We, the Missionary Sisters of the Precious Blood, are called to live the Paschal Mystery and to witness to the redeeming love of Christ. We choose to embrace life joyfully in its fullness and promise. Daily we seek "the more" in contemplative awareness, and in personal and communal prayer. We live in community to be a lively, loving presence in all our relationships. We are committed to help make life better in practical ways and through the sharing of resources, and we actively embrace our responsibilities to honour and care for God's good creation.

In the rich tapestry of the story of the Missionary Sisters of the Precious Blood, throughout many parts of our beautiful world for these past one hundred and thirty-three years, we have 'read the signs of the times'. We are ordinary women, doing ordinary things for the extraordinary love of God. By opening ourselves to the spirit of God, we seek always "the more". Perhaps, you do too!

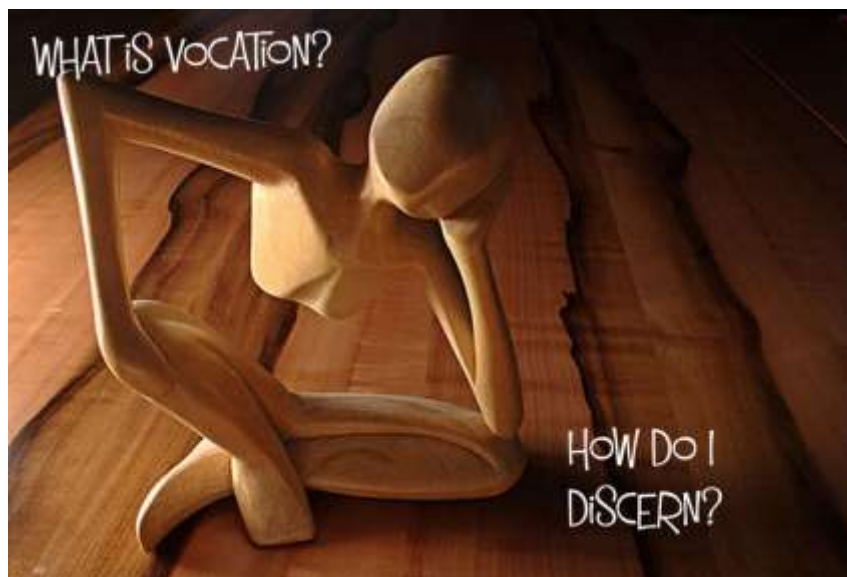

I will not forget you.
I have carved you on the palm of my hand
Isaiah 49:15

Is God calling You
beyond yourself to love and generosity in response to the cries of the people and the cries of the earth?
